

How to reach Lund, venue and time

Lund

Lund is situated in the centre of the attractive and spacious Öresund region in southern Sweden, only 60 km from Copenhagen (the capital of Denmark) and 15 km from Malmö (third largest city in Sweden). Lund can be reached by plane to the Copenhagen and Malmö Airports. From the Copenhagen Airport there are frequent trains to Malmö and some of them even continue directly to Lund. The journey takes less than 60 minutes. From Malmö Airport there are frequent buses to Lund (and it takes app. 45 minutes to reach Lund). Alternatively, one can take a train to Copenhagen H (Main Station) and then continue to Lund by the local Öresund train.

From the Lund C station there are regular local buses, nr. 6, 20 or 166 to the venue site, Biologihuset (the closest bus stop is called Kårhuset). Alternatively, one can reach Biologihuset on feet from the station or a majority of hotels (located in the Centre) in less than 25 minutes.

Venue

The venue is situated at the Department of Cell and Organism Biology, Biologihuset (Building 85A, just opposite Kårhuset, on the attached map), and the address is: Sölvegatan 35, SE-22362 Lund (<http://www.biol.lu.se/cellorgbiol/index.html> or <http://www.biol.lu.se/cellorgbiol/engindex.html>).

Time

ICAP2006 will start with the registration on Thursday, 17th August, early afternoon, and the first session is scheduled for 5 p.m. The ICAP2006 will close down on Sunday, 20th August before lunch.
